There and Back—One morning Richard woke up and decided he needed to drive to the Arctic Ocean—from his home in Cape May, NJ. Told in a thick Yorkshire accent, with a sense of humor and a disdain for PC, Richard talks about his 16,000 mile adventure, living in his car, the inspiring people he met, and places he went. Did it shape The Crossley ID Guide: Waterfowl, would he recommend you do the same trip, are just two of the many questions that Richard will address. The answers will surprise you.

Richard Crossley is an internationally acclaimed birder, photographer and award-winning author of The Crossley ID Guide series. Born in Yorkshire, Richard is also co-founder of the global birding initiative Pledge to Fledge (www.pledgetofledge.org), Race4Birds (www.race4birds.org), and The Cape May Young Birders and resides in Cape May, NJ.

The Crossley ID Guide: Waterfowl

The new waterfowl bible with the award-winning Crossley-style plates. Crossley-style plates are perfect for beginners, kids, and intermediates. Unlike other guides, which provide isolated individual photographs or paint illustrations, this book features large, lifelike scenes that are "painted in pixels."

- Over 300 pages of images, comprised of over 5,000 individual images
- Covers all of North America's ducks, geese, and swans
- Lots of mystery photos to challenge you
- Friendly, interactive writing style covering identification and conservation, fun facts... and everything between
